

1820's America "The Era of Good Feelings"

Volunteer Historical Interpreters Wanted

The Historical Interpretive branch of the W.S. Hancock Society is currently seeking "serious" historical interpreters to participate in historical programming that focuses on the lives of Rural Pennsylvanians during the Federal period of the 1820's.

If you have an interest in this fascinating period in American history and or posses a skill of the time, such as; carpentry and or cabinetmaking, blacksmithing, leatherworking, domestic arts of the home, weaving & sewing, basket making, farming, or any other trade or profession of the time or just have an interest in this time period and want to participate, then we want you to join our interpretive team.

Currently our interpretive programs presented at;

Old Bedford Village in Bedford, Pennsylvania
Mercer Museum in Doylestown, Pennsylvania
Heller House in Hellertown, Pennsylvania

All ages and families are welcome and encouraged to join and be a part of this unique and unexplored facet of historical programming.
